Holland, MI —

The Alliance for Cultural and Ethnic Harmony will hold its annual Holiday Potluck and Cultural Sharing Party 5:30 p.m. on Saturday, Dec. 5, in the First United Methodist Church fellowship hall, 57 W. 10th St.

People attending are asked to bring a dish to pass, from their own ethnic background if possible, and a non-perishable item that will be donated to a local food bank. ACEH will provide beverages and table service.

Entertainment will feature Nettie Martin, "Miss Nettie," an African American storyteller from Kalamazoo, and music by David Newton of Holland. Family craft activities will be offered by artists Annie Olson and they Rev. Angela Taylor Perry, both of Holland.

ACEH is a grass-roots organization founded in Holland in 1999 to promote justice, unity, cross-cultural understanding, and appreciation for diversity. Its meetings and events are open to the public. For more information, call (616) 392-5569 or (616) 396-2201.
