Holland — The Alliance for Cultural and Ethnic Harmony (ACEH) will host the Destination Education community forum at 6:15 p.m. on July 13. The forum is to help students learn more about resources for college and post-secondary training.

Destination Education will take place at Herrick District Library Auditorium and is free to attend. Information will be available in English and Spanish.

An initiative sponsored by the Community Foundation of the Holland/Zeeland Area, Destination Education offers families “Know How 2 Go” materials on access, awareness, and resources for college and other kinds of training after high school. The program is targeted to 7th through 12th graders, their parents, grandparents, mentors, youth-serving organizations, and community members.

Collaborating organizations for the event are Herrick District Library, the City of Holland, Juneteenth, the Center of African American Art and History, Latin Americans United for Progress (LAUP), Lakeshore Latino Outreach Center, Lakeshore Ethnic Diversity Alliance, and TRIO/Upward Bound at Hope College.

The Herrick District Library Auditorium is located at 300 South River Ave. in Holland.
